Ed:

Feel free to give me a shout when you can and I can certainly update you. I know you are out today. Tom Londregan has this and briefly responded already to Joe that the police report requested is being reviewed.

Kris:

Feel free to provide Reference #. Darren, when you get a chance can you update me on this just to be aware before press writes of it. I did hear of such an incident but not sure if it is the same. Thank you

Kris:

Good morning. I have received a request from the New London Day requesting a police report involving numerous juveniles and an incident on school grounds. It will probably be best to have the Town Attorney review this and help us determine what part, if anything of the police report, can be released to the press. I received the request last evening at 8:50 PM. Thank you very much and if Ed has any questions on this, please feel free for him to give me a shout.
