RE: STATE CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORDS CHECKS

NOTICE AND DEMAND TO CEASE AND DESIST

Connecticut Carry, Inc. hereby demands that you, in your capacity as a temporary state permit issuing authority (hereinafter, "local issuing authority"), cease and desist from compelling any applicant for a temporary state permit to submit with the application a $50.00 fee paid to the State of Connecticut/Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection for a criminal history records check. Notice is provided herein that a local issuing authority compelling an applicant to submit a $50.00 fee paid to the State of Connecticut/Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection for a criminal history records check as a condition of making application for a temporary state permit is subject to joinder in an action to be filed by and on behalf of (1) any temporary state permit applicant who has been required by a local issuing authority since October 1, 2009, to submit the $50.00 fee for a state criminal history records check as a condition for obtaining a state permit and (2) any individual who has been deprived of a temporary state permit based on the unlawful imposition of a $50.00 fee for a state criminal history records check as a condition for obtaining a temporary state permit. In support, Connecticut Carry, Inc. asserts:

VIOLATION

- In conducting an investigation upon receipt of a "Pistol Permit Application" (Form DPS-799-C), the local issuing authority forwards an applicant's fingerprints or other positive identifying information to the Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection (DESPP) (formerly, the "Department of Public Safety") (hereinafter, "DESPP") requesting the results of a state criminal history records check. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-29(b);
- Effective October 1, 2009, the DESPP amended its "Pistol Permit Application" (Form DPS-799-C) to require that applicants submit a $50.00 fee to the issuing authority paid to the DESPP for the state criminal history records check;

¹ See General Statutes § 29-28(b): "Upon the application of any person having a bona fide residence or place of business within the jurisdiction of any such authority, such chief of police, warden or selectman may issue a temporary state permit to such person to carry a pistol or revolver within the state, provided such authority shall find that such applicant intends to make no use of any pistol or revolver which such applicant may be permitted to carry under such permit other than a lawful use and that such person is a suitable person to receive such permit."

- Prior to October 1, 2009, the DESPP did not require that an applicant submit a fee with the “Pistol Permit Application” (Form DPS-799-C) for the state criminal history records check;
- Prior to October 1, 2009, the DESPP required that an applicant submit two fees to the issuing authority; the first fee paid to the local issuing authority for costs related to the processing of the application, and the second fee paid to the DESPP for payment to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for the national criminal history records check;
- Effective October 1, 2009, the DESPP required that an applicant submit three fees to the issuing authority; the first fee paid to the local issuing authority for costs related to the processing of the application, the second fee paid to the DESPP for the state criminal history records check, and the third fee paid to the DESPP for payment to the FBI for the national criminal history records check;
- General Statutes § 29-11(c) waives the DESPP fee for a state criminal history records check when a state criminal history records check is requested by a federal, state, or local municipality;
- The amendment to the “Pistol Permit Application” (Form DPS-799-C) effective October 1, 2009, which added the requirement that an applicant for a temporary state permit submit with the application a $50.00 fee paid to the DESPP for a criminal history records check, was not authorized by the Connecticut General Assembly or other lawful authority;
- Since October 1, 2009, the DESPP has made use of local issuing authorities to collect, unlawfully, the $50.00 fee in excess of one-half million dollars for obtaining state criminal history records checks when the local issuing authorities, as a matter of law, are entitled to request and receive state criminal history records check at no cost. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-11(c);
- The position of the DESPP, as stated in an April 30, 2010, Response to a Petition submitted by Scott Wilson, President of the Connecticut Citizens Defense League (CCDL),³ for a Declaratory Ruling, places responsibility and therefore the legal liability for the unlawfully collected $50.00 fee upon the local issuing authority;
- Former DESPP Commissioner John A. Danaher III, currently a Judge of the Superior Court, declined to take any position concerning the $50.00 fee in his April 30, 2010, Response, stating: “Because the issuance of temporary state permits to carry pistols or revolvers is not the responsibility of the Department but rather that of the local issuing authorities, see Conn.

³ A Connecticut corporation, <http://www.ccdl.us>.

Gen. Stat. §§ 29-28 and 29-28a, the Department declines to address the obligation of local issuing authorities.” See attached Response of the Department of Public Safety, dated April 30, 2010, at 1;

- The collection of the $50.00 fee by a local issuing authority, unilaterally and/or as an agent for the DESPP, when by law the local issuing authority requests and receives a criminal history records check at no cost, imposes a taxation without representation upon individuals submitting applications for temporary state permits; and
- The collection of the $50.00 fee by a local issuing authority, unilaterally and/or as an agent for the DESPP, when by law the local issuing authority requests and receives a criminal history records check at no cost, infringes upon the state and federal constitutional rights of individuals eligible to carry a pistol or revolver in the state without due process of law.

DEMAND TO CEASE AND DESIST

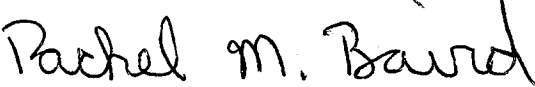

Accordingly, formal DEMAND is hereby made of you and all of your associates, accomplices, and accessories of whatever description, to CEASE and DESIST immediately from requiring any applicant for a temporary state permit to submit with the application a $50.00 fee paid to the State of Connecticut/Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection for a criminal history records check.

NOTICE OF INTENT⁴

This is our formal NOTICE to you of our intent to lodge a COMPLAINT specifically naming you as a principal in a conspiracy to engage in a pattern of activities in connection with the unlawful collection of a $50.00 fee from applicants for temporary state permits thus imposing an unlawful tax upon the right to bear arms in Connecticut and infringing upon state and federal constitutional rights of individuals eligible to carry a pistol or revolver in the state without due process of law.

STATE OF CONNECTICUT

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

1111 Country Club Road
Middletown, CT 06457-2389

IN RE: PETITION FOR DECLARATORY RULINGS BY AN ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY DIRECTED TO:

Commissioner of Public Safety, John A. Danaher III, and Board of Firearms Permit Examiners, Joseph Corradino

PETITIONER: Scott Wilson, Sr., 8 Summer Street, New London, CT 06320

DATE: April 30, 2010

RESPONSE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

Pursuant to the provisions of Conn. Gen. Stat. § 4-176(e), the Department of Public Safety (hereinafter "Department") hereby responds to the Petitioner's Request for a Declaratory Ruling on the following question posed by the Petitioner in his Petition:

"May a permit be denied or not accepted by an issuing authority if an application for a Temporary State Permit to Carry Pistols and [sic] Revolvers or Eligibility Certificate, [sic] fails to contain the currently stated $50.00 to cover the issuing authorities [sic] submission of a State Criminal History background check on an applicant?"

Summary

Because the issuance of temporary state permits to carry pistols or revolvers is not the responsibility of the Department but rather that of local issuing authorities, see Conn. Gen. Stat. §§ 29-28 and 29-28a, the Department declines to address the obligations of local issuing authorities.

With regard to applications for eligibility certificates pursuant to Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-36g, the plain language of the relevant statutes mandates that the required state criminal history records checks are to be conducted on behalf of the applicant by the State Police Bureau of Identification (hereinafter "SPBI"). Therefore, it is determined that an application submitted without the statutory $50.00 fee for the state criminal history record check would be incomplete and could not be processed until such time as the Department received the required fee.

Discussion

The following review of pertinent statutes follows traditional principles of statutory construction. First, it is critical to make every effort to construe a statute as a consistent whole, creating a harmonious body of law. Powers v. Ulichny, 185 Conn. 145, 149 (1981); Rustici v. Stonington, 174 Conn. 10, 13, 381 A.2d 532 (1977). "It is a basic tenet of statutory construction that the intent of the legislature is to be found not in an isolated phrase or sentence but, rather, from the statutory scheme as a whole." State v. Breton, 235 Conn. 206, 226, 663 A.2d 1026 (1995). Therefore, a "statute should be read as a whole and interpreted so as to give effect to all of its provisions." Pintavalle v. Valkanos, 216 Conn. 412, 418, 581 A.2d 1050 (1990) (emphasis added). "A statute is passed as a whole and not in parts or sections and is animated by one general purpose and intent." Badolato v. City of New Britain, 250 Conn. 753, 760 (1999)(citation omitted). Further, "words in a statute must be given their plain and ordinary meaning . . . unless the context indicates that a different meaning was intended." (Internal quotation marks omitted.) Gelinas v. West Hartford, 225 Conn. 575, 584, 626 A.2d 259 (1993); Wiseman v. Armstrong, 269 Conn. 802, 810 (2004).

Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-36g(a)¹ sets forth the requirements for applications for eligibility certificates, enumerating with specificity the obligations of both the applicant and the commissioner of Public Safety. Among the requirements of this subsection, "[t]he commissioner shall require each applicant to submit to state and national criminal history records checks," and "shall conduct criminal history records checks in accordance with section 29-17a." Thus, § 29-36g(a) clearly and unambiguously provides that the criminal history record checks to which an applicant must submit are governed by Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-17a.

Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-17a sets forth the procedures for the conducting of criminal history records checks that are required by statute. Subsection (a)² directs that the fingerprints of the individual identified in the request are to be forwarded to SPBI (which is a unit within the Department), and that SPBI conduct the state criminal history records check. Subsection (b)³ explicitly authorizes the ¹ Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-36g(a): Requests for eligibility certificates under section 29-36f shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Public Safety on application forms prescribed by the commissioner. No eligibility certificate for a pistol or revolver shall be issued under the provisions of said section unless the applicant for such certificate gives to the Commissioner of Public Safety, upon the commissioner's request, full information concerning the applicant's criminal record... The commissioner shall require each applicant to submit to state and national criminal history records checks... The commissioner shall record the date the fingerprints were taken in the applicant's file and shall conduct criminal history records checks in accordance with section 29-17a...

² Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-17a(a): If a criminal history records check is required pursuant to any provision of the general statutes, such check shall be requested from the State Police Bureau of Identification and shall be applicable to the individual identified in the request. The requesting party shall arrange for the fingerprinting of the individual or for conducting any other method of positive identification required by the State Police Bureau of Identification... The fingerprints or other positive identifying information shall be forwarded to the State Police Bureau of Identification which shall conduct a state criminal history records check...

³ Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-17a(b): The Commissioner of Public Safety may charge fees for conducting criminal history background checks as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection, for a person requesting (A) a state criminal history records check, the fee charged by the Department of Public Safety for performing such check, and (B) a national commissioner to collect "the fee charged by the Department of Public Safety for performing such check." That fee is set at $50.00 by Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-11(c)(7).

Nowhere in this statutory scheme is there any indication that the legislature intended for applicants for eligibility certificates to be treated differently than any other individual required to obtain a criminal history records check. To the contrary, Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-36g specifically instructs that the criminal history records checks for such applicants must be conducted in accordance with the very statute that authorizes the commissioner to charge fees for statutorily required criminal history records checks. Any suggestion that applicants are not subject to the statutory fee because Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-36g indicates that the applicant must submit "to" a criminal history records check, while the request itself is submitted "by" the issuing authority, would result in the absurd conclusion that the statute requires the Department to submit requests to itself and presumably charge itself the statutory fee. Such a linguistic contortion ignores the plain language of the statutes.

Like any other individual who obtains a copy of a state criminal history record, applicants for eligibility certificates are subject to the $50.00 fee provided in Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-11(c)(7), and failure to pay the fee would constitute a failure to submit to a criminal history records check as required by Conn. Gen. Stat. § 29-36g(a). In such a case, the application would be deemed incomplete and could not be processed.

Dated this 30th day of April, 2010.

John A. Danaher III, Commissioner

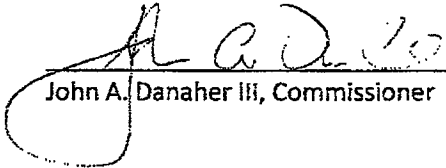

criminal history records check, the fee charged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for performing such check.
(2) For a state agency requesting a national criminal history records check of a person, the fee charged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for performing such check. The state agency shall reimburse the Department of Public Safety for such cost. Unless otherwise provided by the provision of the general statutes requiring the criminal history records check, the state agency may charge the person a fee equal to the amount paid by the state agency under this subdivision.

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that in accordance with C.G.S. § 4-176(f), a copy of the foregoing was mailed this 30th day of April, 2010 via certified mail, return receipt requested to:
